About the hotel: Opened in 1931, the crown jewel of the city of Cincinnati, The Hilton Cincinnati Netherland Plaza is a classic French Art Deco hotel masterpiece. The Continental Room where our meeting will be held, has striking floor-to-ceiling windows, large stately chandeliers and detailed frescoes of the four seasons. The historic hotel's main lobby and mezzanine areas feature a half acre of rare Brazilian rosewood, extensive use of German silver, and stylized Egyptian decor reinforced with intricate floral designs. There are also finely detailed frescoes, ceiling murals, and an original Rookwood fountain with a pair of matching seahorses. Other areas to see are the renowned Hall of Mirrors, inspired by the Palace of Versailles in Paris. The refined restaurant the Orchids at Palm Court, is reminiscent of an interior found on a 1930s ocean liner and was named #7 Best Restaurant in the USA by OpenTable for 2014.

A walking guide of the hotel is available at the front desk.
